Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

I. Claims 1-8, 20-27, 39-47 and 58-60, drawn to a system and method for receiving an update schedule from a plurality of web sites and for providing the update schedule of selected sites to at least one consumer.

II. Claims 9-13, 14, 17, 28, 29-33, 36, 48, 49-52 and 55, drawn to a system and method for recommending sites to the consumer based on the consumer's registration information and based on the consumer's interest as measured by the interest of members of the consumer's peer group (collaborative filtering).

III. Claims 15-16, 18-19, 34-35, 37-38, 53-54 and 56-57, drawn to a system and method for placing advertisements in the web site update schedule forwarded to the user based on the consumer's or user's interest.

Inventions I and II, for example, are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the subcombination is drawn to a system and method for recommending sites to the consumer based on the consumer's registration information and based on the consumer's interest as measured by the interest of members of the consumer's peer group (collaborative filtering). Hence, the subcombination has separate utility.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single invention for prosecution on the merits.
